JOCKEYS ENGAGED.

LATONIA RACE TRACK, KY., November 22.—Enoch Wishard, acting for John A. Drake, today signed jockey Houbre to ride for the Drake stable. J. K. Hughes had a three-years' contract on the boy, and it is said that he received a big sum for Houbre's release. Capt. S. S. Brown's agent has purchased the contract held by V. Hughes & Co. on jockey Helgesen. Hughes insisted that he be retained as Helgesen's manager, and this condition was agreed to.

HORSES AT CUMBERLAND PARK.

NASHVILLE, TENN., November 22.—The Tennessee Breeders Association is making many improvements in its racing plant at Cumberland Park. Five new, roomy barns are in course of construction, which, when finished, will be occupied by F. Cook, P. Gorman, Turney Bros. and Capt. A. C. Franklin.

Nashville is considered the best wintering spot in the country. With its good barns, fresh spring water, covered winter training track, comfortable cabins, there is no wonder that all the stabling has been spoken for for the coming winter. So great has been the demand for stabling, the management is building additional stables, and besides the barns already nearing completion material for two additional barns of thirty and forty stalls each were ordered today.

Those already in winter quarters at Cumberland Park are the Drake stable, G. Hendrie, J. Walters, A. Franklin, J. G. Greene, J. Cage, J. Gardner, H. Gerhardt, W. W. Darden, J. M. Johnson, W. Gerst, S. E. Parmer, J. Beaver, Fizer & Co., B. Mannion, M. Redmond, S. P. Harlan, H. I. Marshall and L. G. Tate. Among those who have already engaged stable room and will ship to Nashville at the close of the Washington, Lakeside and Latonia meetings are Turney Bros., J. Morris, P. Gorman, F. Cook, T. P. Hayes, W. Hayes, R. F. Meyers, F. Lightfoot, J. Ferris, F. Bruhns and H. Franklin.

Fully 500 head will winter at Nashville. The Tennessee Breeders Association's meetings have been entirely too short. At Nashville only twenty-one days of racing have been had in three years. The city of Nashville will liberally patronize a two weeks' meeting, and this time will be asked for at the next meeting of the Western Jockey Club. With a plant that cost over $225,000, and one of the best equipped in the country, it is impossible to make money with a meeting of six or eight days. Nashville should have at least two weeks in the spring and the same number in the fall.

The management will add at least $3,000 to their Derby of next year, and purses will range from $300 to $600; all stakes will be added money events, the program will call for something over $2,500 per day.

Stakes will be announced in DAILY RACING FORM after the meeting of the Western Jockey Club, the first Monday in December.

STALLION AND MATRON STAKES.

In this issue of DAILY RACING FORM the Western Racing Association invites entries in two of the most alluring prizes of the American turf, the National Stallion Race of 1904 and the Matron Stakes of 1905, to both of which entries will close Tuesday, December 9. Both are produce stakes and should appeal to the small breeders of this and adjoining states, as assuredly they will to the great breeders everywhere. Particular attention is directed to the conditions governing entries and DAILY RACING FORM will furnish entry blanks on application.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

M. Goldblatt and "Willie" Carroll left Latonia Wednesday night over the Louisville & Nashville for New Orleans. They took seventeen horses in all. George Rowe's Ranco was one of them. Goldblatt will race him this winter. Hop Scotch, the property of Matt Hogan, also had a "berth" in the car.

C. B. C., Chicago. Watkins Overton's show odds should have read 6 to 5. Guess Work's quotation was as received and is no doubt correct.

J. J. Marklein has decided to go to California, and with that end in view is weeding out his stable. James Arthur purchased from R. E. Reynolds the horse Illuminate at private terms Friday.

Jockey O'Neill was suspended indefinitely for his ride on Sauber at Latonia Wednesday.

Tiburon will be taken to California by C. E. Rowe.

Time, 1:22, 24, 48½, 1:02½, 1:27½. Winner—Br. f, by Dandie Dinmont—Belle Foster (trained by W. C. Capps). Went to post at 2:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Dandie Belle got off running and displayed a good burst of speed, but was tiring at the end and only lasted long enough. Tribes Hill ran in the middle of the field nearly all the way and did not get clear sailing until too late and just failed to get up. Euclaire ran well and showed quick improvement. Flara would have been a keen contender with an even start and made up a big gap. Brunswick was sore when going to the post. Courtenay ran as if short and should improve. It was a poor race for Lady Potentate. Provost was interfered with on the turn.

Scratched—36230 Rappenecker, 106; (36103) Rough Rider, 105; 36247 Mollie Peyton, 103; 36239 Animosity, 100; 36378 Jack McGinn, 100; 36211 Ivernia, 98; 35849 Handicapper, 97; 36211 Nuptial, 92; 36288 Musidora, 90; 28207 Larva, 90; 36266 Frank Love, 87.

Time, 12, 24½, 49½, 1:02½, 1:39½. Winner—Ch. c, by Golden Garter—Stella (trained by A. C. McCafferty).

Went to post at 2:35. At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Star and Garter's performance was an excellent one. Off none too well he worked his way through the field and finished strongly, getting up in the last stride. Rosewater rounded to with a rush, showed speed and might have won with a stronger rider up. Lord Advocate came fast through the stretch and finished strongly. Geisha Girl ran a fair race and is worth remembering. Alhambra lasts longer each race, is speedy and should win soon. Roll Call failed to run to his reported trials. Uranium quit badly.

Scratched—35287 Glennevis, 110; 36245 Louise Elston, 107; 36173 Retire, 107; 36335 Anne Hathaway, 107.

Overweights—Lord Advocate, 3 pounds. Star and Garter, show, 7 to 5. Rosewater, show, 2 to 1. Lord Advocate, show, 10 to 1. Roll Call, show, 4 to 5. Uranium, show, 1 to 2.

Complained in betting. Time, 6:13½.

Winner—B. g, by Juvenal—Born Fool (trained by T. P. Phelan). Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Woolgatherer was easily the best of a poor collection of infield performers. Duke of Grassland, a good jumper, was made too much use of in the first part of the race and tired. Charles O'Malley fenced fairly well, but is only a rater. Cheval d'Or was going strongly when he went down. Joe Leiter threw his rider, but was remounted and went the course.

Scratched—(3420) Bean Ideal, 163; 34758 Lemoon, 163; 28777 Diver, 163.

Corrected weights—Kate Spottwood, 147. Woolgatherer, show, out. J. D. Hall, Jr., entry, show, 1 to 2. Cheval d'Or, show, 4 to 5.

Reynolds & Co.

119 DEARBORN ST.

— MONDAY —

we have two almost sure winners at each track with odds from 3 to 10 to 1.

— TUESDAY —

at Bennings we have one of the best things of the season in store for our clients. Every pool room in the country will be bet to a standstill on this one. He worked fast enough to beat any horse at the Bennings track. He will be in with a cheap lot on Tuesday and must fall down to lose. This is surely the best chance in the world to gather winter money.

Our experts at Ingleside also inform us that they have a half dozen or more good things tabbed for the coming week and each will win the first time out with odds from 3 to 20 to 1.

Saturday we gave our usual liberal number of winners. Our information for this week will be worth a small fortune to any big bettor.

Remember Reynolds & Co. advertise the truth and are always to be relied on.

Winner—Br. c. by The Judge—Sacharisa (trained by M. L. Mitchell). Went to post at 3:30. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second driving. Saccharometer has been steadily improving, was in light and, after being in a good position throughout, forged to the front in the final furlong under a hard drive and was doing his best at the end. Toscan was anchored by the weight in the final drive, but his race was a good one. Cinquevalli broke running, showed plenty of speed and fought out the finish gamely, but his impost was too much. Dark Planet finished fast and would have been second in a few more strides. Ancke and Illyria weakened when the strong pressure came. It was a poor race for Dramatist. Owing to an error on the program as to Cinquevalli's owner, he and Nevermore were not coupled in the betting.

Scratched—36901 Invincible, 119. Overweights—Saccharometer, 2 pounds; Dark Planet, 1. Saccharometer, show, evens. Toscan, show, 6 to 5. Cinquevalli, show, evens. Dramatist, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Albert—Bonnie Ola (trained by R. Pryor). Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Bonnibert, good and fit, was well handled throughout and received the benefit of a strong finish, saved ground on the stretch turn and was tiring at the end. Lux Casta was best at the weights and would have won with capable handling. Sevoy found the route too far, but displayed great speed. The Huguenot had no mishaps. In a good position throughout, he simply could not gain at the end. Harry New ran under a pull for the first six furlongs. He is a free runner and was choked into exhaustion and had nothing left when called on. Extinguisher tired badly.

Scratched—36393 Meistersinger, 110; 36291<sup>2</sup> Cameron, 110; 36381 Young Henry, 107; 36136 Maud Gunne, 107; 36310<sup>2</sup> Examiner, 95. Bonnibert, show, 4 to 5. Lux Casta, show, 8 to 5. Sevoy, show, 4 to 5. The Huguenot, show, 1 to 4. Harry New, show, 3 to 5.

At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Orontas, a good performer over a distance of ground, was running on at the end when the others were tiring. Blake laid out of the race too long with him and was compelled to ride hard to get up in the final furlong. Cogswell, a consistent gelding, ran a good race and fought out the finish, but tired in the last fifty yards. Circus found the route a trifle far. He easily went to the front in the stretch and weakened in the final drive. Collegian was in front on suzerainty only.

Winner—Ch. m, by Albert—Etricia (trained by J. J. Freiberg).
Went to post at 2:00. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won all out; second driving. Fleuron showed the most speed throughout and raced Waninta to defeat in the first half, but was doing her best all through the last furlong to stall off The Light. The latter ran well, but tired when the pinch came. Georgia Gardner finished strongly. Waninta was eased up when beaten. Hie Away was in a pocket all the way.

Winner—Ch. c, by Lazzarone—Gold Mint (trained by J. Hall).
Went to post at 2:28. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Silk Cord showed surprising speed throughout and made a show of his field. He ran in much improved form and his speed returned suddenly. Scortic finished very strongly, caught Guide Rock tiring at the end and outgamed him when it came to a drive. Guide Rock ran a good race. There was a jam at the start, caused by Locust Blossom, which swerved across her field. Flop, Trocadero and Frank Mc were shut off and had to pull up. Flop made up much ground afterwards, but tired from the effort to get up.
Scratched—(36373) The Messenger, 100; 36198 Leenja, 93; 36234 Brissac, 93.

Time, 25, 52, 1:19.
Winner—Blk. or br. f, by Ormus—Alveria M. (trained by A. Franklin).
Went to post at 2:48. At post 5 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second the same. Olefant ran to her best form, fought it out gamely all through the last quarter with St. Minor and Jack Rattlin and finished strongly. St. Minor was bumped into at the furlong post by Jack Rattlin and swerved over into deep going next to the inside rail. He might have won but for this. The weight told on Jack Rattlin in the last sixteenth and he tired when strongly called on. Stunts, Kirkleington and Gus Burkley were as good as left at the post.

Scratched—(36235) Rag Tag, 112; 36108 Our Jessie, 91.

Winner—Ch. g, by Fonso—Lucasta (trained by J. Hall).
Went to post at 3:18. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Fonsolucia was much the best in the going, was cut off and knocked back on the backstretch, came to the outside and closed a big gap while rounding the far turn and was going away at the end. Firing Line showed speed, but tired when it came to the deciding drive. Wyola was easily the best of the others. Talala was cut off at the first turn. Zyra showed early speed, but tired badly.

Winner—Br. g, by Lissak—Helen Mar II. (trained by E. W. Moore).
Went to post at 3:43. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Little Boy was at home in the going, ran a good race, stood off challenges from Immortelle and Miss Gould in the first three-quarters and had enough left to stall off Mr. Farnum in the stretch run. Daly outrode Bonner when it came to a drive, and with riders reversed Mr. Farnum would have won. He ran well and finished fast. Kilmorie was tiring badly at the end. Rosanco closed a big gap. Tancred saved a lot of ground at the first turn.

Scratched—(36270) Laura F. M., 102; 36293 Miss Eon, 92.

Winner—B. f, by Sain—Highland (trained by A. Bellow).
Went to post at 4:07. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second handily. Satchel got off running and was hustled along for the entire route and finished stoutly. Aratoma closed a big gap and would have won with an even start. Rose of May was used up in chasing Satchel and tired. Moderator was worn out in the first half and tired badly at the end.

Winner—Ch. g, by Fonso—La Belle III. (trained by H. W. Hoag).
Went to post at 2:06. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Florinel forced the pace throughout, came away in the stretch without urging and is an improved horse. Jim Gore II., skillfully ridden and lucky, finished well. Mocorito had scant chance with a bad rider and was swerving into the rail in the last furlong. Loyal S., under pressure throughout and always outrun, favors a slow track. Our Pride finished strongly. Edinborough quit after going a half.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Before sailing for home on the Celtic Wednesday, jockey Maher was interviewed and is reported to have said: "I have been more or less restricted by physical conditions in securing mounts which I believe would have increased my average, but I am quite satisfied with 106 wins out of 400 mounts. I must say I cannot always sympathize with the complaint some of my fellow American jockeys have made against English turf methods. As far as I am concerned, I have always found English racing men to be true sportsmen, and if I have had any trouble at all it has been with American quite as often as with English jockeys."

"My racing season had a number of peculiar features—for instance, the fact that I won five of the most important races on Rockland, and that I never lost a race with him. This is probably without precedent. I had almost equal success with Flotsam, on which I beat my old mount, Rockland, in the most sensational finish of the season. As these two horses are now the favorites for the Derby of 1903, and as I believe they are the best two-year-olds in England, I hope to bring one of them home first in that race. My wins of the Eclipse Stakes, value $50,000, on Cheers, and the Champion Stakes, value $25,000, on Rabelais, both at Sandown, helped to make up the sum of $100,000 which I secured for my employers during the season. I propose to remain in the United States until March, when I will return to England to ride for Sir Daniel Cooper, Sir James Miller and Lord Cadogan."

Jockey Lucien Lyne has returned to his father's Larchmont stud, Lexington, Ky., where he will remain for two or three weeks. He tips the scale at 105 pounds and is in great condition. He went there from the Bennings meeting and drove at once to his home to see his mother. The young jockey has a number of offers to ride at New Orleans and he may go there for a week or two. John W. Schorr was after him for that meeting, but he declined. He goes to New York the first week in January.

The stable of G. C. Bennett has been shipped from Memphis to take part in winter racing at New Orleans, commencing on Thanksgiving Day. Fourteen head are included in the bunch, which is in charge of Henry McDaniel, the regular Bennett trainer. The Bennett yearlings and some of the older horses, including Abe Frank, winner of the Tennessee Derby; Blennenworth and Ed Austin, were left at Memphis to be rested for next year's campaign. Bennett has not decided on a rider for the New Orleans meeting. Coburn, the regular stable jockey, will not report to the stable until January.

Charles Clancy, a prominent turfman of Seattle, who is now in San Francisco, says the Seattle Racing Association has decided to give a thirty-day meeting in the spring and another of the same duration in the fall. The association expects to have Judge Murphy, of St. Louis, preside in the stand. A proposition has been made Murphy to visit Seattle to look over the ground and have a conference with the principal owners of the establishment. "We have one of the prettiest plants in this country," said Clancy recently, "situated right in the bend of the river, but a few miles out of Seattle, with first-class transportation facilities, electric and steam cars running to the track, commodious, up-to-date grandstand, over 50 stalls for horses—in fact, everything that goes to make a first-class racing establishment."

Judge Joseph A. Murphy was seen in regard to the rumor that he had been to Chicago to promote the new race track projected by P. J. Carmody, and that unless dates were given it trouble would be made for racing in Chicago and Missouri. "You can deny for me," said Mr. Murphy, "that I have been to Chicago at all, or that I have any intention of entering into a race track fight. I have been through three, and I find that if you win one you lose in the end. Racing is better off not agitated in any way, and if there is to be any effort to injure racing in Illinois or Missouri I will positively not be a party to it. However, operating race tracks is my business, and my services are at the disposal of any one who will pay my price and give me authority to protect the public and myself."—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Through his private secretary, Clarence Hall, Hon. Perry Belmont has secured a long-term lease on J. C. Graves' Arbondale stock farm of 250 acres, three miles from Lexington on the Nicholasville road. His sires Ethelbert and Magian, with ten brood mares, have arrived and will be sent to the stud at once. The horses came from Silver Brook stock farm in New Jersey, which has been bought of Lucien Appleby by C. Mackay. George Hughes will be manager of the stud. Mr. Belmont believes the blue grass best suited to horse breeding and he will maintain a stud there permanently.
